

READING PLAN

Week 1 - An Unveiling, Not a Puzzle

Theme: Unveiling - Learning to See

- Day 1: Revelation 1:1–8 - Jesus is revealed as ruler and faithful witness.
- Day 2: Revelation 1:9–20 - The risen Jesus stands among his churches.
- Day 3: Revelation 2:1–7 - Jesus knows his church and calls it to faithful love.
- Day 4: Revelation 1:1–20 - Look for symbols, Old Testament imagery, and hear-and-see reversals.
- Day 5: Revelation 1:1–20
  Reflect: How does seeing Jesus change the way we read Revelation?

Week 2 - Letters to the Churches - What Jesus Sees

Theme: A Church That Remains Faithful

- Day 1: Revelation 2:1–7 - Ephesus – Don't Lose Your First Love
- Day 2: Revelation 2:8–17 - Smyrna & Pergamum – Faithful Under Pressure
- Day 3: Revelation 2:18–29 - Thyatira – Don't Compromise Your Faith
- Day 4: Revelation 3:1–13 - Sardis & Philadelphia – Wake Up and Hold On
- Day 5: Revelation 3:14–22 - Laodicea – Don't Become Lukewarm
  Reflect: If Jesus were to evaluate our church today, what would He celebrate, what would He challenge, and what would He call us to change?

READING PLAN

Week 3 — A Throne Above Every Throne

Theme: Advent Hope · The Throne and the Lamb

- Day 1: Revelation 4:1–11 - Heaven's throne is occupied.
- Day 2: Revelation 5:1–7 - The Lion conquers as the slain Lamb.
- Day 3: Revelation 5:8–14 - All creation worships the Lamb.
- Day 4: Revelation 4:1–5:14 - Worship reveals who truly rules.
- Day 5: Revelation 4:1–5:14
  Reflect: What shapes your imagination more—earthly headlines or heaven's worship?

Week 4 — The Lion Who Is a Lamb

Theme: Advent Peace · The Lamb's Way of Victory

- Day 1: Revelation 5:5–14 - Jesus redefines what it means to conquer.
- Day 2: Revelation 6:9–17 - Thee martyrs cry out for justice.
- Day 3: Revelation 7:1–8 - God knows and seals his people.
- Day 4: Revelation 7:9–17 - The Lamb gathers, shepherds, and comforts his people.
- Day 5: Revelation 5:5–14; 7:9–17
  Reflect: How can we resist evil without becoming like it?

READING PLAN

Week 5 — The Songs of the Saints

Theme: Advent Joy · Worship Forms Allegiance

- Day 1: Revelation 4:8–11 - God is worthy of worship.
- Day 2: Revelation 5:9–14 - The Lamb is worthy because he has redeemed his people.
- Day 3: Revelation 7:9–12 - A multitude from every nation worships together.
- Day 4: Revelation 11:15–18; 15:2–4 - God's reign and justice inspire praise.
- Day 5: Revelation 19:1–10 - Heaven rejoices in God's victory.
  Reflect: What is shaping your worship and allegiance?

Week 6 — Christmas Behind the Curtain

Theme: Advent Love · The Dragon and the Child

- Day 1: Revelation 12:1–6 - The child is born amid the dragon's opposition.
- Day 2: Revelation 12:7–12 - The dragon is defeated through the Lamb's victory.
- Day 3: Revelation 12:13–17 - The dragon continues to oppose God's people.
- Day 4: Revelation 12:1–17 - Read the Christmas story from heaven's perspective.
- Day 5: Revelation 12:10–17; John 1:1–14
  Reflect: How does God's vulnerable but unconquerable love shape the way we live?

READING PLAN

Week 7 — Faithful Witness

Theme: Witness · Following Jesus Faithfully

- Day 1: Revelation 2:1–11 - Jesus commends faithfulness and calls for renewed love.
- Day 2: Revelation 2:12–29 - Jesus confronts compromise.
- Day 3: Revelation 3:1–22 - Jesus calls the churches to wake up, endure, and repent.
- Day 4: Revelation 11:1–13 - God's witnesses testify despite opposition.
- Day 5: Revelation 12:10–12 - God's people overcome through the Lamb and their testimony.
  Reflect: Where are we faithful, and where have we compromised?

Week 8 — The Beastly Way of Power

Theme: Beast · Counterfeit Power and Allegiance

- Day 1: Revelation 13:1–4 - The sea beast imitates power and demands allegiance.
- Day 2: Revelation 13:5–10 - God's people are called to endurance and faith.
- Day 3: Revelation 13:11–18 - Deception and economic pressure reinforce the beast's power.
- Day 4: Revelation 14:1–5 - The Lamb's people bear a different allegiance.
- Day 5: Revelation 14:6–12 - Worship reveals whom we serve. Reflect: Are we becoming more like the Lamb or the powers we oppose?

READING PLAN

Week 9 — Come Out of Babylon

Theme: Babylon · Seduction, Empire, and Economy

- Day 1: Revelation 17:1–6 - Babylon seduces as well as persecutes.
- Day 2: Revelation 17:7–18 - Earthly power is temporary and accountable to God.
- Day 3: Revelation 18:1–8 - God's people are called out of Babylon's way of life.
- Day 4: Revelation 18:9–20 - Babylon's luxury conceals exploitation and suffering.
- Day 5: Revelation 18:21–24 - Babylon's glory collapses.
  Reflect: What shapes our loves, loyalties, spending, and imagination?

Week 10 — How Long, Lord?

Theme: Judgment and Victory · Evil Brought to an End

- Day 1: Revelation 6:1–17 - The horsemen portray conquest, violence, scarcity, and death.
- Day 2: Revelation 8:1–13 - The trumpet judgments warn of the consequences of evil.
- Day 3: Revelation 9:1–21 - Even amid judgment, humanity refuses to repent.
- Day 4: Revelation 15:1–16:21 - God's judgment confronts the powers that destroy creation.
- Day 5: Revelation 19:11–20:15 - The beast, evil, and death face their defeat.
  Reflect: Can we long for justice without delighting in the destruction of our enemies?

READING PLAN

Week 11 — Behold, I Am Making Everything New

Theme: Renewal · God's New Creation

- Day 1: Revelation 21:1–8 - God makes all things new and dwells with his people.
- Day 2: Revelation 21:9–21 - The New Jerusalem reveals God's beautiful, holy city.
- Day 3: Revelation 21:22–27 - God's glory fills the city, and the nations come into its light.
- Day 4: Revelation 22:1–5 - The river and tree of life restore the garden's promise.
- Day 5: Revelation 22:6–21 - Jesus promises to come.
  Reflect: How can we live now as citizens of God's renewed creation?

READING PLAN

Week 12 — The Lamb Wins: Seeing the Whole Story

Theme: Review · Worship, Witness, and Hope

This final week brings the book together, helping readers see how its visions form one overarching message rather than simply a sequence of future events.

- Day 1: Revelation 1:1–20; 4:1–5:14 -
  The unveiling and the throne: Who is Jesus, and who truly rules?
- Day 2: Revelation 7:9–17; 12:1–17 -
  The Lamb and the dragon: How does Jesus win, and what does that victory mean for his people?
- Day 3: Revelation 13:1–14:12; 17:1–18:24 -
  The beast and Babylon: What competing powers and loyalties must the church resist?
- Day 4 Revelation 19:1–20:15; 21:1–22:5 -
  Judgment and new creation: What will God finally defeat, restore, and make new?
- Day 5: Revelation 1–22 -
  Review the book's major themes and reflect on how Revelation calls us to worship, faithful witness, endurance, and hope.